

Our Finalists 2019

Women's Singles Contrasting styles

Jada Okoye– Starts in the first of her 3 finals. She's strong and will need to be. Good athlete and competitor will look to be aggressive.

Tania Freire Galivanes– A former club champion equally anupand coming junior, solid from the ground and will look make lots of balls in.

Men's Singles 60 Plus

Charlie Ferber– Will look to use his technical know-how to produce good serving and variety to disrupt his opponent.

Emanuel Mond– Finalist last year, a classic stroke maker and possessing a good left handed spin service combining with a strong forehand.

Boy's Singles 16 and Under—Young Guns

Archie Champion– Steps up an age group after a convincing campaign winning the Middlesex County 12 and under Title. Tall rangy and powerful.

Joshua Imber– A pedigree player he also performed well in the Middlesex 14 and under event. Full of flair and feel and good left hander. With great variety.

Mixed Doubles

Belhomme/Jacobs– Regulars in club finals both possess a flair game bring excellent net coverage and serving to the table and their experience will prove a good test.

Campion/Sueppel—Strong juniors both. Fast groundstrokes and Sophie a former Women's Champ will make his a real contrast of styles.

Men's Doubles Power Game

Metadier/Pourquery– An all French team Benjamin with his solid game will complement Pierre's extravagance, a real musketeer in Tennis terms.

Collins/Ramphal– Powerful duo Matt and Amit will look to dominate with their serving and return skills—regulars in our teams all.

Women's 40 Plus

Amanda Jacobs– Will use her previous Finals experience as a recent champion excellent forehand and attacking skills.

Kate Ormandy– Super reliable game makes Kate a real tough opponent. Solid skills and excellent tactics. Can her success from last year's Mixed Doubles translates to Singles.

Men's 45 Doubles Hotly contested title

Belhomme/Dan Oakley– Current champions, Dan possesses a mean serve and groundstrokes to complement Benoit's net skills.

Fitch/Glynne– Excellent team performers this season. Similar skill sets, Simon has an excellent serve, Robert quick and agile round the court with a good all court game.

Women's Doubles Groundstrokes v Volleys

Ormandy/Taub– Can these experienced team players use their tactical skills to good effect and bring their volley game into play against the youngsters.

Freire-Galivanes/Okoye –Possessing aggressive groundstrokes it will be an interesting foil against their opponents solid doubles game.

Girls' 16 and Under

Alexsandra Bonilla– Fantastically smooth player with a calm attitude. Very solid and efficient groundstrokes and will prove a real challenger.

Jada Okoye– Looking at the second match of the day she will surely need all her powers of focus concentration and determination.

Boy's 12 and Under Ones to watch

Denzell Darkey– When not training with his dad he has been trailblazing the tournament scene being one of the best in his 10 and under age group. Possesses all the shots and technically superb as well as a good competitor.

Zeb Imber– Equally he has been going toe to toe in practice will Denzell so will be a great match, excellent shot variety and skills.

Men's 60 Plus Doubles

Korda/Gerrard- Joker in the pack unconventional Ilan joins forces with a slick Bradley making this a contrasting partnership.

Bach/Ferber- Gentleman Jonathan a chandos stalwart will bring his enthusiasm to the court, partnered by competitive Charlie will look to challenge.

Men's Singles      Top Quality from a strong Men's Draw

Benjamin Metadier- Super efficient an excellent all round game honed in France where he was a top Junior player, will look to use his experience.

Louis Quaynor- Part of the dynamic brother duo, Luke has a super aggressive game attacking with great serve and forehand. Previous Middlesex champion in Junior age groups and now playing ITF tennis events.

Men's 45 Singles

Barry Isaacs- All conquering in this age group and successive champion. His blend of stamina strength and mental skills will as always be a force to be reckoned with.

Paul Giacomazzi- A new face to the club and to the Finals, excellent all round game the dark horse of the draw will provide a fresh challenge.

120 EAST END ROAD
LONDON N2 0RZ
020 8346 2856

